Members of Buchheit in Sparta presented the Pink Ladies Support Group with a check for $2,616. The money came from a breast cancer awareness fundraiser at the store. The Buchheit chain of stores raised a total of $19,000. The Pink Ladies provide care packages, quilts, wigs and other support for those recently diagnosed with breast cancer. Shown from the left are store manager Jamie

Schilling, Buchheit owner Kenny Buchheit, Pink Ladies representative Claudia Kerens, Buchheit customer service member Kim Eftink and cancer survivor and Pink Ladies member Diane Stewart. Eftink was the store's top fundraiser, raising $500 on her own.
